Charis Moses

Charis has taught ballet, pas de deux, variations, jazz, modern, contemporary, lyrical and turns/leaps/tricks, (a class she created) for renowned schools in NY, DC, MD, VA, NV, and So. and No. CA such as; Joffrey Ballet, Alvin Ailey, Dance Theatre of Harlem, Lula Washington, Russell's School of Ballet to name a few. Most recently on the teaching faculty of Joffrey Ballet School NYC and recently completed a work for the Joffrey Jazz and Contemporary company, (under Michael Blake), to the infamous Chicago-Cell Block Tango and is in the process of setting another work on the company. Also, she served as the arts in education/outreach coordinator and store manager there also. In 2008, she choreographed for the nationally televised BET Celebration of Gospel; in 2010, was the Assistant Director for Duke Ellington's School of the Arts (her alma mater), Summer Intensive & Musical. Also has choreographed musical productions such as Mame, West Side Story, Jesus Christ Superstar, The Wiz, The Wizard of Oz and The local DC Jr. Miss Pageant in 1985. Also a lead dancer and co-choreographer for the production of "Divine Diva's", (a Las Vegas production), at the Main Street Station and Stardust Hotels. Charis was the production manager and costume coordinator for the Joffrey Ballet & Gelsey Kirkland Academy Nutcracker Production 2010 and outreach consultant for the Gelsey Kirkland Academy. Formerly, also the Ballet Mistress for Lula Washington Studios in Los Angeles, CA for over four years before moving back to the East Coast.

Chyrstyn Fentroy

Chyrstyn Fentroy was born and raised in Los Angeles, California where she trained with her mother Ruth Fentroy until the age of 17. She then moved to New York City to further broaden her studies at The Joffrey Ballet School, where she currently is a trainee. She has been offered full scholarships to several trainee programs and summer intensives such as Alvin Ailey, The Washington Ballet School, Dance Theater of Harlem, New Zealand School of Dance, and Joffrey Ballet School. She has also attended other summer intensives such as American Ballet Theatre, New York. Chyrstyn has been a finalist in the Youth America Grand Prix in 2010 and 2011 where she was asked to compete in the Beijing International Dance Competition and has also had her contemporary choreography recognized in other competitions. Chyrstyn is now performing in her second year with the Joffrey Ballet School Touring Company.

Jeremy Grandberry

After graduating from Morton Ranch high school in 2009, Jeremy attended Sam Houston state University as a BA in photography. A semester later, Jeremy began his training in ballet, jazz and modern in Sam Houston State's BFA Dance Program spring 2010. While at Sam Houston State, Jeremy performed works by Jonathan Charles, Cindy Gratz, Andy Noble, and Dionne Noble. Jeremy performed in two pieces at the 2011 ACDF (American College Dance Festival); one of which was chosen to close that years' Gala concert. Jeremy targeted his training to ballet at the Joffrey Ballet School in June 2011. Jeremy now continues his training at Joffrey Ballet School as a trainee and member of the school's touring company under the direction of Davis Robertson.
